FLUTE Emma Halnan

VIOLA Joe Bronstein

HARP Heather Wrighton

The Aurora Trio is an exciting young chamber ensemble, which is quickly developing a reputation for pushing the boundaries of its unusual instrumentation. Their repertoire comprises many new pieces and original arrangements alongside core works for flute, viola and harp. Since its conception in 2012, the trio has performed widely across the UK; recent engagements include recitals at the Wigmore Hall, Queen Elizabeth Hall, Colston Hall, Norwich and Norfolk Festival, Halesworth Festival and Roehampton University. From 2014-16, the trio held a prestigious chamber music fellowship at the Royal Academy of Music

Robert Peate

Robert is a young professional composer living in Ewyas Harold. He has a number of compositions to his name and his work has been performed at the Presteigne and other Festivals
